Dear Sir:

Yours of 16th received. My contract for furnishing the 8 oz. Bag Duck required by your Mint for the present season does not expire until June 30th, 1894 and should it be desirable to change the width of the fabric that it may cut to better advantage, will do so at a price directly proportionate to the widths. I have made up quite a lot of the 29 in. goods in anticipation of your further wants, so that delivery might be made promptly, but should you desire to change the width, will dispose of this elsewhere. Kindly let me know promptly if you want the 44" goods so there will be no inconvenience in regard to delivery.

You refer to the Schedule for supplies needed for 1895 calling for 44" goods. The one sent me on the 15th last calls for 29". Kindly let me have one of the new ones.

Yours respectfully,

James S. Gary
